the baronial home of William Welch man yielding to the subtle power Harrison, near Philadelphia, along with pretty faint? giving day.

Several weeks ago a young man who gave his name as Adolph Waitz applied for the position of butler at Grey Towers. He had letters of recommendation from prominent New Yorkers and his application was successful. He was polite and attentive, and soon earned the respect of his employers.

One Thanksgiving Day, while the members of the family were at dinner, Waitz disappeared. After dinner Mrs. Harrison went to her room and discovered that her jewel-case had been rified. Mr. Harrison's apartment had also been entered and the clothes he had taken off while dressing for dinner had been stripped of $40 in cush and a gold watch.

Many Jewels Missing.

Court to-day when he sentenced Jacob Aircer to serve seven years in Sing Sing prison. Affecter is just about as hardened a specime of the Monk Eastman school of crime as can be found in a youth of twenty years.

Jacob is a disciple and great admirer of Monk Eastman. The police have had trouble with him since he wore trousers. He has served several terms on the listand, but that did him no good. On Oct. 2 he held up and robhed a man in Monroe street and the police captured him red-handed, but not without a fight. He would fight anything.

And yet when he was brought up for sentence to-day he fainted clear away when he heard Recorder Goff say "Seven years." He dropped to the floor and remained unconsclous until Coroner Scholer, who is a physician, came and revived him. Then he was so evercome that he could neither speak nor walk and had to be carried back to his cell in the Tombs.

Missing from Mrs. Harrison's jewel case were a pearl necklace, valued at $16,000; a sumburst, valued at $16,000; a sumburst, valued at $300; three pearl horseshoe plans, a pearl heart plan, two strings of imitation pearls, an open-face watch, and a gold enain with a gold whisele. The total value of the missing articles was $20,000.

Chief of Police William Hayes, fr., of Hoboken, read the description of the missing man and it tallied with that of a man who had been arrested in Hoboken, read the description of the missing man and it tallied with that of a man who had been arrested in Hoboken, read the description of the missing man and it tallied with that of a man who had been arrested in Hoboken, read the description of the missing waltz. Pinkerton men were set to the Pinkerton agency here, and it was forwarded to Mrs. Harrison, She at once recognized it as that of the missing Waltz. Pinkerton men were set to watch certain places in the city for Waltz, and finally Detective George S. Dougherty caught sight of a man who tallied with the description.

Accuses Two Others.

In his story to the detectives, Waitz implicated two other men. Detectives Pogarty and Mundy later arrested Paul Hoftman, ewenty-four years old, of No. 93 First avenue, and Charles Borman, allas Charles Myers, twenty-three years old, who lives in Fifteenth street, between First and Second avenues.

Waitz said that these men came to him and unfolded their plan of operation. According to his story, they furnished him with a dress suit and other clothes so that he might make a good appearance, forged a letter of recommendation, using the name of Jacob Ruppert, the wealthy brewer; supplied him with a kit of burglars' tools, and took him to Philadelphia to set in motion the great scheme of robbery.

All three men appeared in the Centre Street Court to-day and were remanded until to-morrow to await the application for extradition. Waitz said that he will wealve extradition proceedings and go with the detectives to Philadelphia when called upon.

Mr. Harrison, who was in court, said that he did not believe the tale of Walfz about the other men, and he had not sen any strange men hanging about his place near Philadelphia during the last three weeks, the time during which Waltz was employed by him. John W. Chew, a detective from Philadelphia, said that he recognized Borman and thought that he was one of the men he saw in the neighborhood of the Harrisons' home. Borman was arrested on Jan. 28, 1906, on a charge of burglary, but was not convicted.

Waltz was taken to the Tombs and Borman and Myers were detained at Headquarters.

A distressing case of Fibroid Tumor, Drops Dead in Restaurant which baffle i the skill of Boston doctors. After Drinking Some Water. Mrs. Hayes, of Boston, Mass., in the following letter tells how she was cured, after everything else failed, by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Mrs. Hayes' First Letter Appealing to Mrs. Pinkham for Help: "DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:-I have been under Boston doctors' treatment for a long time without any relief. They tell me I have a fibroid tumor. I cannot sit down without great pain, and the soreness extends up my spine. I have bearing-down pains both back and front. My abdomen is swollen, and I have had flowing spells for three years. My appetite is not good. I cannot walk or be on my feet for any length of time.

"The symptoms of Fibroid Tumor given in your little book accurately describe my case, so I write to you for advice." - (Signed) Mrs. E. F. HAYES, 252 Dudley St., (Roxbury) Boston, Mass.

Note the result of Mrs. Pinkham's advice-although she advised Mrs. Hayes, of Boston, to take her medicine—which she knew would help her her letter contained a mass of additional instructions as to treatment, all of which helped to bring about the happy result.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:-Some time ago I wrote to you describing my symptoms and asked your advice. You replied, and I followed all your directions carefully, and to-day I am a well woman.

"The use of Lydia E, Pinkham's Vegetable Compound entirely expelled the tumor and strengthened my whole system. I can walk

"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is worth five dollars a drop. I advise all women who are afflicted with tumors or female trouble of any kind to give it a faithful trial."—(Signed) MRS. E. F. UPRIGHT, 7 1-3 octave, 3-stringed, HAYES, 252 Dudley St., (Roxbury) Boston, Mass.

Mountains of gold could not purchase such testimony-or take the place of the health and happiness which Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound brought to Mrs. Hayes.

Such testimony should be accepted by all women as convincing evidence that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound stands without a peer as a remedy for all the distressing ills of women; all ovarian troubles; tumors; inflammations; ulceration, falling and displacements of the womb; backache; irregular, suppressed or painful menstruation. Surely the volume and character of the testimonial letters we are daily printing in the newspapers can leave no room for doubt.

Mrs. Hayes at her above address will gladly answer any letters which sick women may write for fuller information about her illness. Her gratitude to Mrs. Pinkham and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is so genuine and heartfelt that she thinks no trouble is too great for her to take in return for her health and happiness.

Truly is it said that it is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound that is curing so many women, and no other medicine; don't forget this when some druggist wants to sell you something else. $5000 PORPHIT if we cannot forthwith produce the original letters and signa-tures of above testimonials, which will prove their absolute genuineness.
